DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Claims 11-26 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention and species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election of Group I, claim 1, was made by Applicant in Paper No. 4 received March 17, 2004. The Examiner concludes Applicant elected Group I, claims 1-10, pursuant to the restriction requirement. The Examiner concludes Applicant did not elect Group II, claim 11 (a possible interpretation given Applicant's response). Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §101

2. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The basis of this rejection is set forth in a two-prong test of:

- (1) whether the invention is within the technological arts; and
- (2) whether the invention produces a useful, concrete, and tangible result.

For a claimed invention to be statutory, the claimed invention must be within the technological arts. Mere ideas in the abstract (i.e., abstract idea, law of nature, natural phenomena) that do not apply, involve, use, or advance the technological arts fail to promote the "progress of science and the useful arts" (i.e., the physical sciences as opposed to social sciences, for example) and therefore are found to be non-statutory subject matter. For a process claim, the recited process must somehow apply, involve, use, or advance the technological arts.

In the present case, claims 1-10 only recite an abstract idea. The recited steps of a system comprising steps of reading a first and second location and two processes does not apply, involve, use, or advance the technological arts since all of the recited steps can be performed in the mind of the user or by use of a pencil and paper. These steps only constitute an idea of how to read locations.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1, line 1, "a system . . . a method" is not clear. Applicant must decide whether an apparatus or method claim will be recited.

Claim 1, line 3, "the second process" lacks antecedent basis and is not clear.

Claim 4, line 1, "ID" is not clear what is being referenced.

Claim 9, line 1, "each" is not clear what is being referenced.

It is further noted that the specification has numerous references to products, e.g. page 4, lines 13, 15, that are covered by Trademark protection. However, the appropriate markings are not provided. Correction is required of these and other instances.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-10, as understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Powell et al., US 6,317,650.

Powell discloses a system comprising a plurality of processes, e.g. Figs. 2, 9, 16, 25, 29, for reading a card, e.g. 215, including a memory, length and value characteristics, e.g. located on the magnetic strip (the information placement of the card may be placed at various locations, e.g. col. 17, lines 12-67), a checkout station, e.g. 900, and a signal. Powell does not specifically disclose a plurality of second processes.

To have provided a plurality of second processes for Powell would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art. The motivation for having done such would have been to incorporate common knowledge and extremely well known redundancy of operations used to provide a more efficient checkout operation. It is noted that Applicant's intended use, e.g. claim 1, line 2, "for each", do not positively recite claim limitations.

7. A further pertinent reference of interest is noted on the attached PTO-892.
8. Applicant's Information Disclosure Statement has been reviewed. Note attached PTO-1449.
